“So the last will be first and the first last” -
MATTHEW 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our gratitude and generosity helps us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Spirit of St. Vincent

“Because Jesus took our misery upon Himself, it is only reasonable that we should follow and imitate His holy, human life....Filled with consolation and happiness at the thought of being accepted by Him to live my entire life as His follower, I resolved that in everything, particularly in uncertain or questionable circumstances, I would consider what Jesus would have done...All the actions and the entire life of the Son of God are only for our example and instruction...” (St. Louise de Marillac, from Gibson and Kneaves, Praying with Louise, p. 55)
